

Potomac
TECHWIRE

The Business of Technology

Potomac Tech Wire
January 12, 2009

Briefly Noted

(Herndon, Va.) Herndon-based Trusted Computer Solutions (TCS), a developer of software designed to help government agencies securely share classified information, on Monday named Paul Livingston to its board of advisors. Currently, Livingston serves as the president of Accokeek Research and Engineering. He previously served as director of the Unified Cross Domain Management Office for the Office of the Director of National Intelligence.